Thought for September

Climate action

“You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.” Matthew, 5 v13 - 16

Taking action for the climate is not only a matter of conserving what we love, but a matter of justice: for communities in parts of the world where the climate emergency is already proving disastrous, and for fellow creatures and nature entrusted to us by God. Jesus called his followers to be salt and light in the world – to influence for good the whole earth we are given. We are called to model this in our own local stewardship, and seek it on behalf of others.
